WESTPORT

Building—Prizes—Compo Beach—A
Mile of Pennies—A Sculptor's Quick
Work—A Year of Library Work—
Festival—Blessing the Bell.

There is not much building going on in town this spring. Horace Hurlbut, of State street, has two cottages in course of erection just above the Episcopal rectory, and Beers Brothers are building a house on Terrace Heights. The foundations for a pavilion at Compo Beach have been laid and the work will be pushed.

Next Wednesday evening, the Pioneer Book and Ladder company gives a smoker and housewarming at its new quarters back of the Town Hall. It is an invitation social for gentlemen only, and there will be both music and refreshments.

Harriet C. Wood has sold a lot on King street, 58 by 100 feet, to Jennie Crocker.

Two or three days last week Town Clerk Hyatt and Mrs. Hyatt were both confined to the house with what the doctor calls malarial grip.

The Town Improvement Society held a meeting at the library this afternoon at 8 o'clock. At 4:30 o'clock the prizes were awarded to the teachers and schools which have made the most improvement on the school grounds and kept them in the best condition.

It would seem that the town authorities are not quite sure about the ground they have taken in the matter of removing bath houses from Compo Beach. There is a rumor that if they do so, injunctions will be sought to restrain them and law suits may follow. Some one has written to Washington to ascertain what property the general government has in the beach.

Congressman Tilson has informed Hon. William F. Allen that the United States government has no interest in Compo Beach above low water mark. He thinks the state and the town ought to be able to look after the squatters.

The ladies of the Methodist church are proposing to raise by gift or subscription a mile of pennies. Such a string would reach from Hotel Square to Light House corner. The money is wanted to clear the church of debt.

At the meeting of the Historical society a few days ago which was held at the Public Library, and not at the residence of Col. Partridge, as was frequently announced, May's orchestra gave the music and Rev. Charles T. Taylor was elected, Chairman of the Executive Committee. A sculptor, H. Daniel Webster, had his clay and tools on hand and going to the platform threw some of the clay upon a board and in a short time had modeled a bas relief of George Washington. With a few dexterous turns of his fingers he changed the portrait into one of the present occupants of the White House, which elicited much applause. Then he made Mr. Taft, with his smiles, melt away and the same day represented Col. John N. Partridge. The meetings will be suspended during the summer, the next one to be held on the 11th of October.

Last night Rev. Ellis B. Dean delivered a sermon in honor of the present graduating class of the Staples High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Kemper have announced the engagement of their daughter Emma to William Sterling Atwater of Derby.

It is now one year since the Jesup Memorial library was thrown open to the public. Since that time it has acquired 1,145 new books, and the total number in the library amounts to 4,300. There are 282 card holders who draw books from the library, and the total number taken out is 17,488, which shows that a good deal of reading is being done in old Westport.

Next Saturday there will be held a strawberry festival for the benefit of the Cross Highway school, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Hubbell. There is to be music, fortune telling and Jack Horner pie, as well as large quantities of strawberries.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Mills gave a dinner party a short time ago, the guests including Oscar Lewis and family, A. Mills and family, Alexander Mills of Jersey City, Mr. Wolford and family and John Horan of New York.

On the 24th inst. the Musical Society will observe its 10th anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dodge, on State street. There is to be a fine program and a large attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Lees have returned from their trip to Europe. The sudden illness of Mr. Lees compelled them to come back much sooner than had been anticipated.

Mr. Douglas Purdy has found employment with a large electrical plant in Albany, N. Y.

John J. Crook contemplates building a bungalow on Woodside avenue.

There will be a meeting this evening of the Men's League at the Saugatuck Methodist church. Rev. K. MacKenzie will speak on "The Bible Its Own Witness."

The new bell presented to the Church of the Assumption by Mr. Dunne, was blessed yesterday at the 10:30 mass by Rev. Father J. J. Dugan. The bell weighs 1,500 pounds and contains an inscription telling who gave it to the church.

LONG HILL NEWS.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the M. E. hall, Mr. Westly Raymond Case will render the beautiful poem "Enoch Arden." Mr. Case is accompanied on the piano by music written especially for the piece of Strauss.

The children's day exercises Sunday evening were a great success and were enjoyed by a large congregation as the hall was nearly filled. The hall was beautiful, the ladies sparing no pains to make it as nice as possible.

SOCIALIST SPEAKER, MAURER, IS COMING

James F. Maurer, who is counted one of the finest street speakers in the Socialist party, will speak at Wall and Main streets on Tuesday and on Wednesday evening of this week, unless it should rain, when his remarks will be made at 1165 Main street, where the public will be welcome. Mr. Maurer makes a specialty of debating with leaders of the old parties the merits of his creed.

THE STOCK MARKET

(Watson, Alpers & Co.)

Wall Street reactions must be surprising if they are to be successful. The one that was in progress last week has disturbed sentiment and margins to an extent that has compelled sacrifice of slender accounts. But there are few observers who will testify that they have disclosed any essentially weak condition as regards the position of the larger interests in the market. The big people who converted part of their paper profits into cash are not going to stay out of the market permanently and the dealers already recorded are offering attractive levels for re-purchases. Feverishness is to be expected pending some relative new development. The chances so far as may be judged, are that this will be a favorable one and we shall look forward to a renewal of constructive and expansive operations by the leaders of capital so long as natural conditions remain as strong as they are at present. The only justifiable complaint that could be made of the recent speculation was that it perhaps had been running too fast. That may indicate technical defects but these are cured quickly by just such liquidation as has taken place.

NOTHINGAGLE'S.
There's a reason why business is booming at Nothingagle's big house-furnishing store. There are so many June weddings, and nearly all the brides who want a nice up-to-date home think of the Nothingagle store first when they get ready to furnish it. The Nothingagle teams have certainly been kept on the run for the past month in order to get goods out as fast as they are wanted. There could be no better evidence than this that there is a constantly increasing demand for the better made goods, and people will trade where they are sure of getting them. They are much cheaper in the end and there is a heap of satisfaction in owning something that you know is just right. The Nothingagle store offers special inducements on whole outfits, so you really pay no more there for the best furniture, rugs, carpets, draperies, Glenwood ranges, etc., than the lower grades cost you at other stores. Visitors always welcome. Take a look and make comparisons. Elevator to all departments. 1069 Main street and 135 Fairfield avenue.—Adv.

Not Many Store-Sales Are Uninfluenced by Store-Advertising!

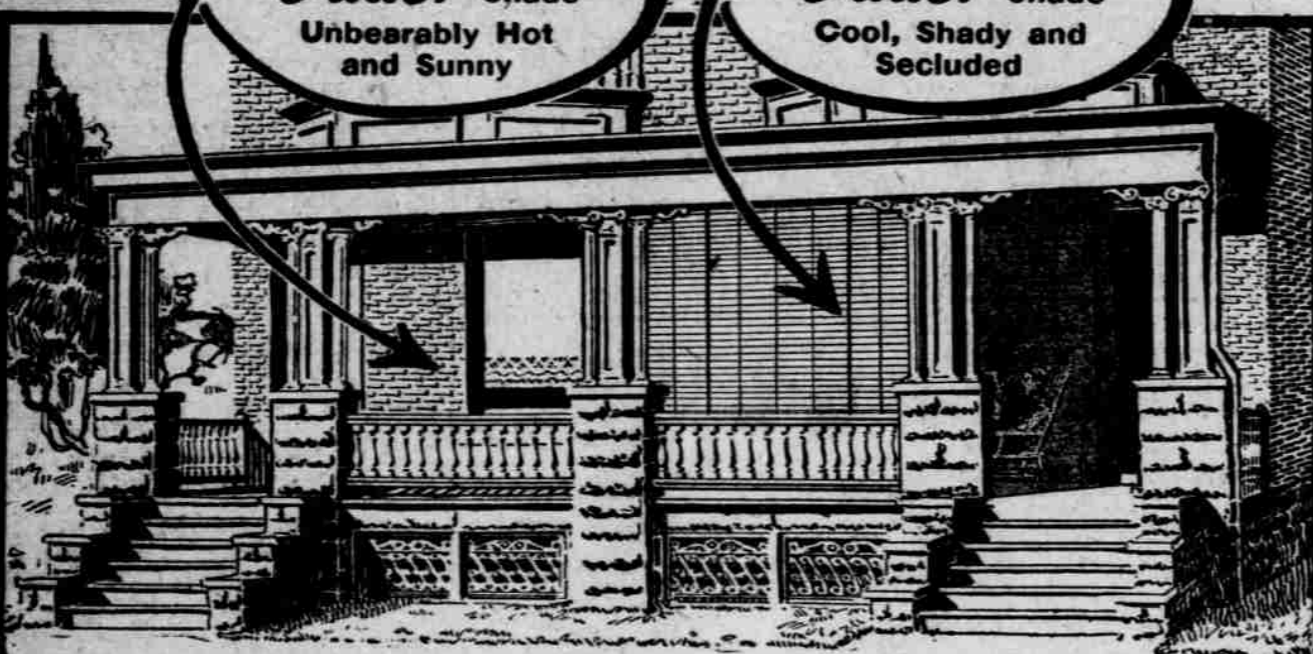

The store-sales to-day that are uninfluenced, directly or indirectly, by store-advertising will not have amounted to ten per cent. of the total business of the day. By the direct influence of advertising is meant the sales of articles specifically advertised. By the indirect influence of advertising is meant the articles sold that are not specifically advertised, but are displayed to the customers who are drawn to the store by THE ADVERTISED ARTICLES. In the latter case, as surely as in the first, the advertising must be credited with the sale.

Observant merchants know that this is true. They should gain courage from the knowledge to strengthen their advertising campaigns to the point of matching their store-hopes and plans.
